HUR THOMPSON.

Tradition in the Thompson family says that three brothers Moses, Aaron, and Hur Thompson, emigrated from Scotland to America; that one of 'them — probably Moses — settled in Pennsylvania; one in Connecticut: and that Hur Thompson settled in Elizabethtown, N. J. Moses, Thomas and Hur Thompson were among the first settlers of Elizabethtown, and their names are in the first list of the "Elizabethtown Associates," respecting their tract of land of some 500,000 acres purchased of the Indians, as recorded in the Old Book of Records in Elizabethtown. In the year 1699 there was a Town Meeting held in Elizabethtown of all the Associates then living, and "those holding under them, or some of them," - and among these the name of John Thompson, who is the only Thompson therein named. And in the same "Old Book "John Thompson and Samuel Thompson are said to be sons of Hur Thompson. It may reasonably be inferred then that Hur Thompson was the father of John Thompson, who was probably the father of Thomas Thompson, who was born January 25, 1712, and died November 2, 1803, aged 91 years, 9 months and 8 days. He survived his second wife just one week. Tradition also says that Thomas had a brother John Thompson.

John Thompson (son of Hur Thompson).
